Keep San Marcos Beautiful Fall Concert Series

Free concert series continues this Thursday with Van Wilks and special guest Adam Johnson and the Red Rooster Revue.

SAN MARCSO: An entertaining variety of fall concerts continues in full swing this Thursday, Oct.14.

The first ever Keep San Marcos Beautiful Fall Concert series continues Thursday at 7 p.m. with Van Wilks and special guest Adam Johnson and the Red Rooster Revue.

In Austin, Texas, a city known for its great guitarists, Van Wilks has long been lauded as one of the city's master players. His talents as a guitarist and band leader have won him consistent critical praise and a string of honors alongside the state's most legendary musical talents.

Van Wilks has toured nationally and internationally with such acts as ZZ Top (whose Billy Gibbons is one of Van's biggest supporters) and torn the roof off nightclubs and concert halls from Lubbock, Texas, the Virgin Islands, Moscow, Paris, Madrid, and countless points all over Europe.

The KSMB Fall Concert Series, in its inaugural year, features weekly acts continuing tonight and every Thursday evening ending Oct. 28. The event hosts a variety of art and eco booths as well.

All concerts are held at the San Marcos Plaza Park stage located at the corner of CM Allen Pkwy and Hopkins Street.

Food sales are provided by the local Boy Scout Pack 1954 and refreshments will be again provided by Tantra Coffee House.

Organizers invite guests to bring blankets and lawn chairs for each night of free musical entertainment to include an array of art and eco opportunities.

The event is presented by Keep San Marcos Beautiful, TallMan Records, Texas Commission on the Arts, the San Marcos Arts Commission, San Marcos Parks and Recreation, the Chamber of Commerce Green Living Showcase and Full Circle Salon.
